

Eric Jourdanet
International Finance Corporation
USA

Eric Jourdanet is Chief Special Operations Officer in the Special Operations Department of the International Finance Corporation, where he is in charge of financial restructurings and workouts of IFC portfolio projects. Eric Jourdanet lead over the past few years several of the largest workouts in the Philippines, India, Mexico, Dominican Republic, Belize, Vietnam, Russia, Tadjikistan, and more recently Kenya.

From 1998 to 2002, Eric Jourdanet worked for the Oil, Gas and Chemicals Department of the IFC, where he was in charge of the financial restructurings in the petrochemical sector and worked mainly in Asia (in particular in Thailand with Star Petroleum and Thai Petrochemical Industries).

Prior to joining the International Finance Corporation, Mr. Jourdanet worked in the Private Equity Department of BNP Paribas based in Paris, covering IT and telecom sectors. He has a degree in Engineering from "Ecole des Mines" in France and graduated in finance and economics from the "Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris."