

Samantha Bewick
KPMG LLP
UK

Samantha Bewick, BA (Hons) (Oxford, UK). She is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and a Licensed Insolvency Practitioner (England and Wales). Samantha is a Director in the London office of the Restructuring practice of KPMG LLP (UK) and spent a year working on complex restructuring in Russia. Her area of practice is primarily complex cross-border restructuring and insolvency.

She has worked on the public cases of Barings plc, Marconi plc, TXU (Europe), and was Joint Supervisor of the CVA of Schefenacker plc. Currently she is working on Mainsail II (a SIV). She has also worked on many similar cases, which are not in the public domain.

Samantha regularly writes on matters related to restructuring including contributing to Expedited Debt Restructuring (Olivares-Caminal), International Corporate Rescue (of which she is a member of the Editorial Board) and Recovery. She is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants' Insolvency Committee and contributes to their pensions committee, and a member of two Working Groups of the Financial Markets Law Committee.