

Scott Atkins
Henry Davis York
Australia

Scott Atkins is a partner of Henry Davis York, a pre-eminent commercial law firm based in Sydney, comprised of 48 partners and over 200 professionals. Scott specialises in insolvency, restructuring and banking dispute resolution. He has over 14 years' experience advising banks, financiers and insolvency practitioners.

Scott's expertise includes banker and customer disputes, security enforcement, receiverships, voluntary administrations, liquidations, workouts and corporate restructurings. Recently, Scott has played a key role in acting for the receivers and the secured creditor of the Australian assets controlled by the Republic of Nauru and for the administrator of a New South Wales statutory marketing body. He is currently representing a major bank in substantial margin loan recoveries, insolvency matters and insolvency related litigation.

Scott publishes in the Insolvency Law Journal and other legal journals on banking and insolvency law. He is a member of INSOL International, the Australian Corporate Lawyers Association and the Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia.

Areas of Law

- Banking Dispute Resolution
- Fraud Prevention & Recovery
- Insolvency & Restructuring