

INSOL
INTERNATIONAL

GLOBAL INSOLVENCY
PRACTICE COURSE

GIPC GRADUATES 2022 - 2023

INSOL International is pleased to announce the thirteenth graduating class of the Global Insolvency Practice Course. The successful participants are now formally recognised as an INSOL Fellow.

Anju Agarwal	ASC Consulting Private Limited	India
John S. Bain	HLB Bahamas, Advisors & Chartered Accountants	Bahamas
Ronit Berkovich	Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP	USA
Ashwin Bishnoi	Khaitan & Co LLP	India
Pete Bowden	Gilbert + Tobin	Australia
Justin Davis	Ogier	Hong Kong
Tameka Davis	Conyers Dill & Pearman	British Virgin Islands
Masaki Fujita	Anderson Mori Tomotsune	Japan
Carlos A. Grande	Abencys Reestructuraciones	Spain
Simon Hurry	Collas Crill	Jersey
Laura Jane Johns	Norton Rose Fulbright	Australia
Chun Yin LAW (Johnny)	Interpath Advisory	British Virgin Islands
Niall Ledwidge	Stout	USA
Nienke Elisabeth Lillington	Campbells LLP	Cayman Islands
Surbhi Pareek	Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas	India
Tim Prudhoe	Stanbrook Prudhoe	Turks & Caicos
Alex Rogan	Eversheds Sutherland International	UK
Sebastian Said	Appleby	Cayman Islands
Urmika Tripathi	AZB & Partners	India
Job van Hooff	Stibbe N.V.	The Netherlands
Francisco Vazquez	Norton Rose Fulbright	USA
Midori Yamaguchi	Mori Hamada & Matsumoto	Japan
John T. Young, Jr	Neinda Advisors LLC	USA

The Global Insolvency Practice Course is INSOL International's pre-eminent advanced educational qualification focusing on international insolvency.

With the fast-growing number of cross-border insolvency cases and the adoption in many jurisdictions of international insolvency rules and provisions, the turnaround and insolvency profession face increasing challenges in the current economic environment. The current outlook demonstrates that the practitioners of tomorrow need to have extensive knowledge of the transnational and international aspects of legal and financial problems of businesses in distress.

For further information please contact Heather Callow (heather.callow@insol.org)