9 FEBRUARY 2023 PROGRAMME

The first in the series of INSOL Future Leaders Programme will be held on 9 February 2023. The programme for the session is below. Further information on the three proceeding sessions will be provided at a later date. Participants are expected to attend all four sessions.

6.00pm - 6.15pm: Introduction to the INSOL Future Leaders Programme.

6.15pm - 6.30pm: Identifying common challenges facing restructuring professionals in their careers.

6.30pm - 7.45pm: Host Restructuring Simulation & Roleplay. Students will take on the roles of separate classes of creditors to learn their respective interests and desire restructuring outcome. Students will debate in small groups, whether to vote for or against the proposed Plan of Arrangement. The exercise simulates the real dynamics of stakeholders in a capital structure and teaches students to truly understand a capital structure, the ladder of priorities, where "money breaks", "sweeteners" and the pragmatism of the voting process, in any statutory restructuring process, using the English Plan of Arrangement, merely as an example.

7.45pm - 9.00 pm: A champagne reception with a difference. Part imbibing, part pedagogical, but all good fun. During the champagne reception, the mentors will circulate around the room giving tips as to how to optimise socialising / networking / etiquette and overcoming fears.

What are the polite methods of exiting a conversation?

What do I wear to a business industry function?

How does one hold a champagne glass?

How does one join a new conversation?

Will anyone talk to me?

When does one exchange business cards?

What is my elevator pitch?

Should I use it?

What is small talk?
